Hello, my darlings.

We've been going vertical to some great places in Las Vegas, high into the sky and into some remarkable homes, don't you think?

But now, my fellow adventurers, it's time to take "Going vertical" to the extreme...say, about 9,500 feet straight up!

Aw...some of you caught on, didn't you? I'm talking about one of the most magical, peaceful and yet exciting places on the planet, much less just a few minutes outside of town... Mt. Charleston!

Have you been? Oh honey, visitors and locals alike who haven't been to Mt. Charleston area missing out on one of our valley's greatest treasures. And, if you're looking for a vacation home or a place to get away, get thee up the mountain!

On my recent ascent up the cliffs and into the Toiyabe National Forest, I met with the Tomashowski family, Garry, Angie and Katie, owners of Mt. Charleston Realty. You've gotta see some of these mountain "cabins" on the market up there!

There's the luxurious three bedroom chalet on Snow White Drive for a cool $1.4 million. Or, how about the European-inspired three bedroom oasis over on Matterhorn Way for just a hair over $1.6 million? Of course, with a cool $1.85 million, you could grab yourself an amazing deal over on Ski Trail.

Don't worry, my friends, if, like moi, these prices are a bit out of your range, there's lot to choose from up there in the clouds-prices for everyone.

Twenty minutes from the edge of Northwest Las Vegas, 45 minutes from the Strip and about 20 degrees cooler year-round, Mt. Charleston is mountains of fun! (I've been dying to say that!) Drive up to the lodge, have lunch on the patio and see for yourself.

I'll see you on my award-winning TV show "Going Vertical With Lark." Also, soon you can check out my newest infatuation ...Lark's List at larksl.com-reviews on everything hot in Vegas, including restaurants, boutiques, events...you're gonna love it. Stay tuned to What's On for all the dish.
